IS ANYTHING TOO HARD?

*Then came the word of the Lord unto Jeremiah, saying,
"Behold, I am the Lord, the God of all flesh:
is there anything too hard for me?"
Jeremiah 32: 26-27*

Have you lived with a difficult situation that remained unchanged no matter how fervently you prayed? If so, you may have begun to doubt God's ability to intervene. Have you wondered if your problems were beyond God's power to help your difficult marriage? Out-of-control finances? Failing health? A wayward child? God's Word to Jeremiah is a powerful declaration of who God is and what he is able to do. He is the one true God, the sovereign Ruler over all the earth. The rhetorical question "Is there anything too hard for me?" is actually a statement of God's supreme power in all circumstances. If anything were too difficult for Him, He would not be God. If God is not sovereign over all, He is not sovereign at all!

Because nothing is too hard for God, we can rest assured that nothing in our lives is outside of God's purposeful control. We may not understand why God hasn't answered our prayers as we wish, but we do know that greater difficulties are opportunities to draw closer to Him. We can have peace in all circumstances when we have absolute confidence that nothing is too hard for God.

No prayer is too hard for Him to answer, no need too great for Him to supply, no passion too strong for Him to subdue; no temptation too powerful for Him to deliver from, no misery too deep for Him to relieve.
